Mr. Robert R. Simmons
Staff Director
Select Committee on Intelligence
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Mr. Simmons:

Thank you for accepting our invitation to speak to the next running of our Midcareer Course. Your presentation is scheduled for Monday, 27 February 1984, from 2:15 to 3:15 p.m. in Room 1001, Chamber of Commerce Building, 4600 North Fairfax Drive, Arlington, Virginia.

Your presentation is scheduled in the phase of the Course which is devoted to coverage of the Intelligence Community. The following scope note will appear in the Course schedule:

Our speaker will offer his perspective on the role of Congress in overseeing the work performed by CIA and the Intelligence Community. He will examine how legislators have viewed the oversight function in the past and how Congress might carry out this responsibility in the future.

The class will consist of 32 mid-level professional intelligence officers with diverse professional and academic backgrounds from all directorates of the Agency. They range in grade from GS-12 through GS-14.

[redacted], our training assistant, will contact your office several days prior to your presentation to arrange for parking and any graphic support you may need. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call
